

Pilgrimage and Urbanism in Roman Baalbek

20 May 2016

EST Workshop, Department for History and Classical Studies, Aarhus University
Richard Mortensen Stuen, AU Conference Centre

Programme

9.45-10.15 Morning coffee and introduction

10.15-11 Ray Laurence, Kent

Baalbek – a site for the study of the sensory perception of space?

11-11.45 Holger Wienholz, Berlin

The temple of Jupiter in Baalbek and the political intention of Beyrouth

12-13 Lunch and coffee (for speakers)

13-13.45 Julien Aliquot, Lyon

Heliopolitan Capitolia: Greek games and religious life in Roman Baalbek

13.45-14.30 Friederike Hoebel, Karlsruhe

*Accessibility and urban integration of the sanctuary in the area of
S. Barbara*

14.30-15 Coffee break

15-15.45 Nicola Daumann, Aarhus

Rethinking spatial boundaries in Roman Baalbek

Concluding discussion

All welcome, but please register!

Organiser: Nicola Daumann ndaumann@cas.au.dk